MANSION HOUSE (SEVILLE)

PRIVATE & CONFIDENTIAL

A photograph of a balcony at the Mansion House in Seville. In the foreground, three wooden lounge chairs with black metal frames are arranged on a tiled floor. Behind them is a dense, vibrant pink bougainvillea hedge. In the background, tall, dark green cypress trees and palm trees are visible, along with the white walls and golden domes of the Alcazar of Seville under a clear blue sky.

From its various balconies and windows, guests can admire the spectacular views of the gardens of the Alcazar, its evocative flower beds, and magnificent palm trees.

Currently, this private residence is owned by the Marchioness of Tenorio and it houses a remarkable collection of contemporary art. The excellent service attends to guests' every need and our staff are looking to make every moment of your stay memorable.
