THE CELLAR

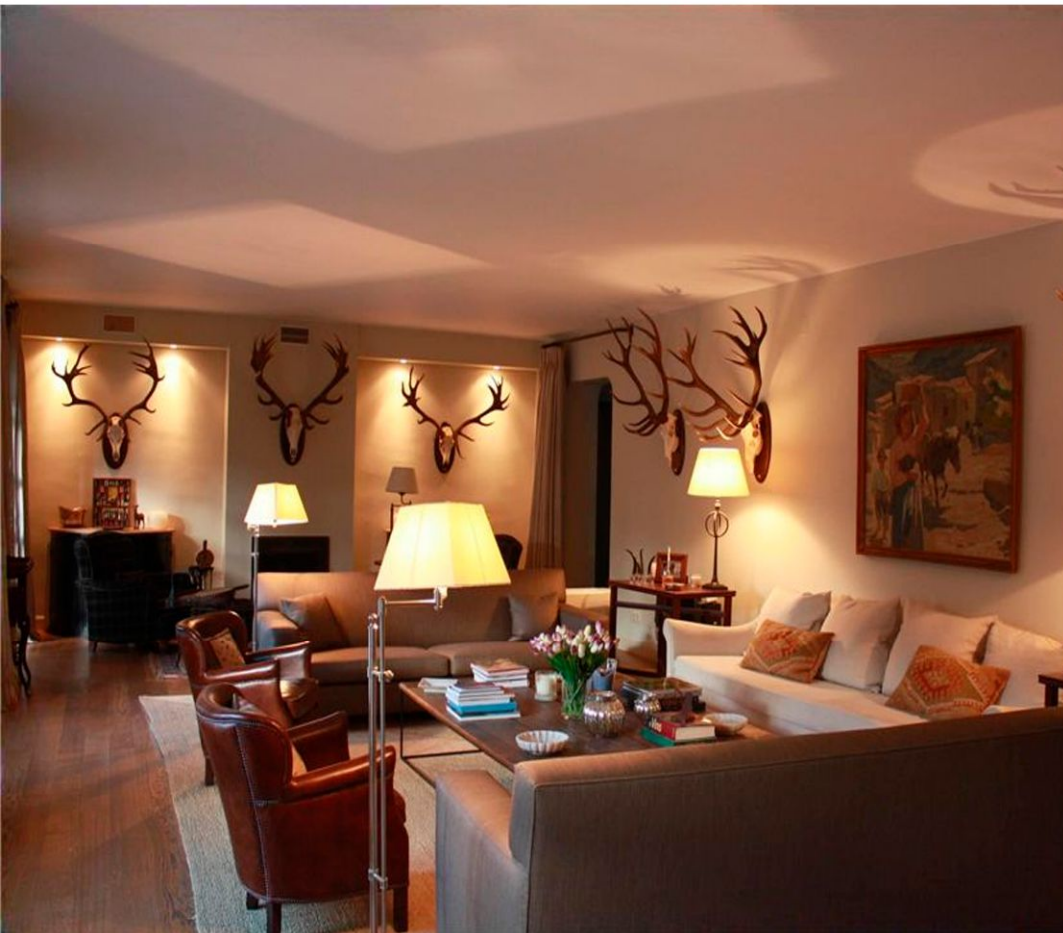

This wine estate is a unique property located in the municipality of Aranjuez, on the southern boundary of the Community of Madrid, known since the mid-nineteenth century by entomologists all over the world. The current owner of the property has supported the activities of entomological research project with high quality wine. In the year 1998 he began planting vines, which currently extends to over 16 hectares. Its varieties are Tempranillo, Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot and Syrah.

THE HOUSE

In a unique natural environment, in the historic town of Aranjuez and half an hour from Madrid, this farm offers a perfect opportunity for wine with all kinds of events and celebrations.
