

ESTATE IN JARANDILLA
DE LA VERA

One of the most beautiful estates in Extremadura and in the midst of the Gredos mountains and surrounded by spectacular lakes, ravines, cliffs and the towering granite structures known as the Galayos. In this secluded retreat, we come across a magnificent private country house whose construction carefully balances local architecture with nature.

For this reason, Emperor Charles I of Spain and V of Germany chose this setting (the Monastery of Yuste) as his place to withdraw and rest; in fact, Cuacos de Yuste has been declared an historical and artistic site of importance.

The estate coexists amidst nature, carefully built to balance local architecture with nature.

The entire area is located on granite land and the waters of the Tiétar River and several streams from the mountains flow through it.

As soon as you arrive the house offers various spaces where you can relax. Inside there are various lounges and rooms and outside on the patios, gardens and in the corners of the pool where you can sunbathe. The feeling of peace and serenity floats in the air. Surrounded by pine, oak and olive trees, this is a perfect place for those who want to combine the peace and quiet of nature with beautiful views of the Gredos mountains.

The estate is also available for short stays, as only a night or weekend can be enough to disconnect, relax and renew yourself.

Enjoy the atmosphere, or golf or other outdoor activities. You don't need to book a long stay, the in-house staff will personally make sure that everything is to your liking so that all our guests feel at home.
